

What is Broadband ?

Broadband is the most popular form of high-speed internet connection, so it is important to choose the right broadband provider if you require it to be right for business use.

Why choose us for business Broadband

We understand that effective broadband delivery is vital for businesses to operate. Voip Unlimited has consistently invested in its core network, providing the resilience and subsequent reliability our broadband customers come to expect of a business grade service provider.

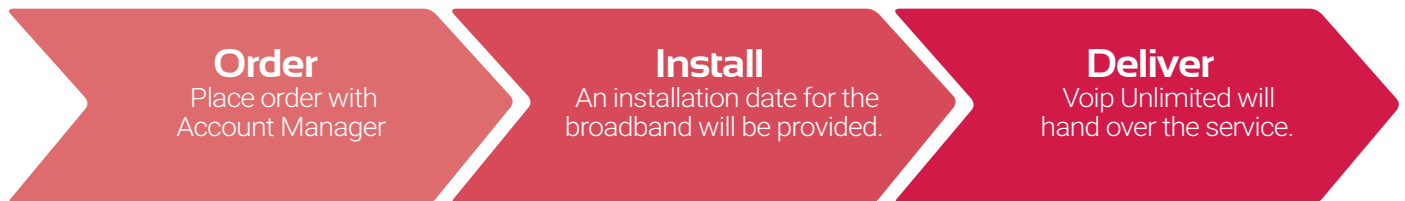

Customers can also choose to adopt our specialist range of VoIP optimised circuits, specifically engineered to maximize call quality and prevent against fraudulent attacks.

Product features

-  Enhanced service options
 SLA Upgrade and provisioning expedite option available on all ADSL circuits.
-  IP address included
 A static IP address is included with all circuits, free of charge.
-  Wires only
 Customers can use own preference for the termination router.
-  Secure VoIP ADSL
 Ideal for SIP trunk customers who want a guaranteed positive experience.
-  Simultaneous provide
 Order your phone line and ADSL to arrive on the same day experience.

What to expect

Upon acceptance of an Broadband service with Voip Unlimited: the steps are:

“

*“The difference was immediate, it was startling.
Without it, the village is dead really”.*

Sir Micheal Hobbs, Kimmeridge Resident

”